BACKGROUND, EDUCATION AND PRACTICE

Susan Hutchison is a partner in the Fort Worth law firm of Hutchison & Stoy, PLLC. She enjoys a diverse practice of employment discrimination, civil rights and personal injury cases.

Susan attended Texas Tech University School of Law where she served as an Editor of the Texas Tech Law Review and received the Judge Mead F. Griffin award for exemplifying the ideals of the legal profession.

Upon graduating Tech in 1987, Susan began practicing with the Fort Worth law firm of Shannon, Gracey, Ratcliff and Miller where she practiced employment defense. In 1994, Susan started her own firm, representing only plaintiffs in employment and personal injury cases.

Susan received Board Certification in Personal Injury Trial Law in 1992. She has been selected as a Texas Super Lawyer and "Top Attorney" in Fort Worth every year since 2003.

Susan currently serves on the Board of Directors for the State Bar of Texas Labor & Employment Section. She is a past President of the Tarrant County Bar Association, Labor & Employment Section, and is a member of the National Employment Lawyers Association and the Texas Employment Lawyers Association. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Tarrant County Bar Association. She received an award in 2011 from Disability Rights of Texas for her work representing those with disabilities.
